

Configure the recommendation cards

Recommendation cards

Recommendation cards define which product information are displayed for each product recommendation.

The recommendation card is the element in the result list that contains the product recommendation together with product information, reasoning content and images.

You can configure all elements that should be displayed within the recommendation card.

Sub-views

- Add Display Attributes
- Recommendation Properties